DEDICATION

The 1965 Clintonia staff would like to dedicate the yearbook to Mr. Charles Sprague. At the end of this year, Mr. Sprague will have completed his thirty-third year of voluntary service as the head usher for the usher's association at the high school.

The entire school appreciates the work that Mr. Sprague has done and the generous time and effort he has put forth to make another club a success.

1965 CLINTONIA
CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL
CLINTON, ILLINOIS

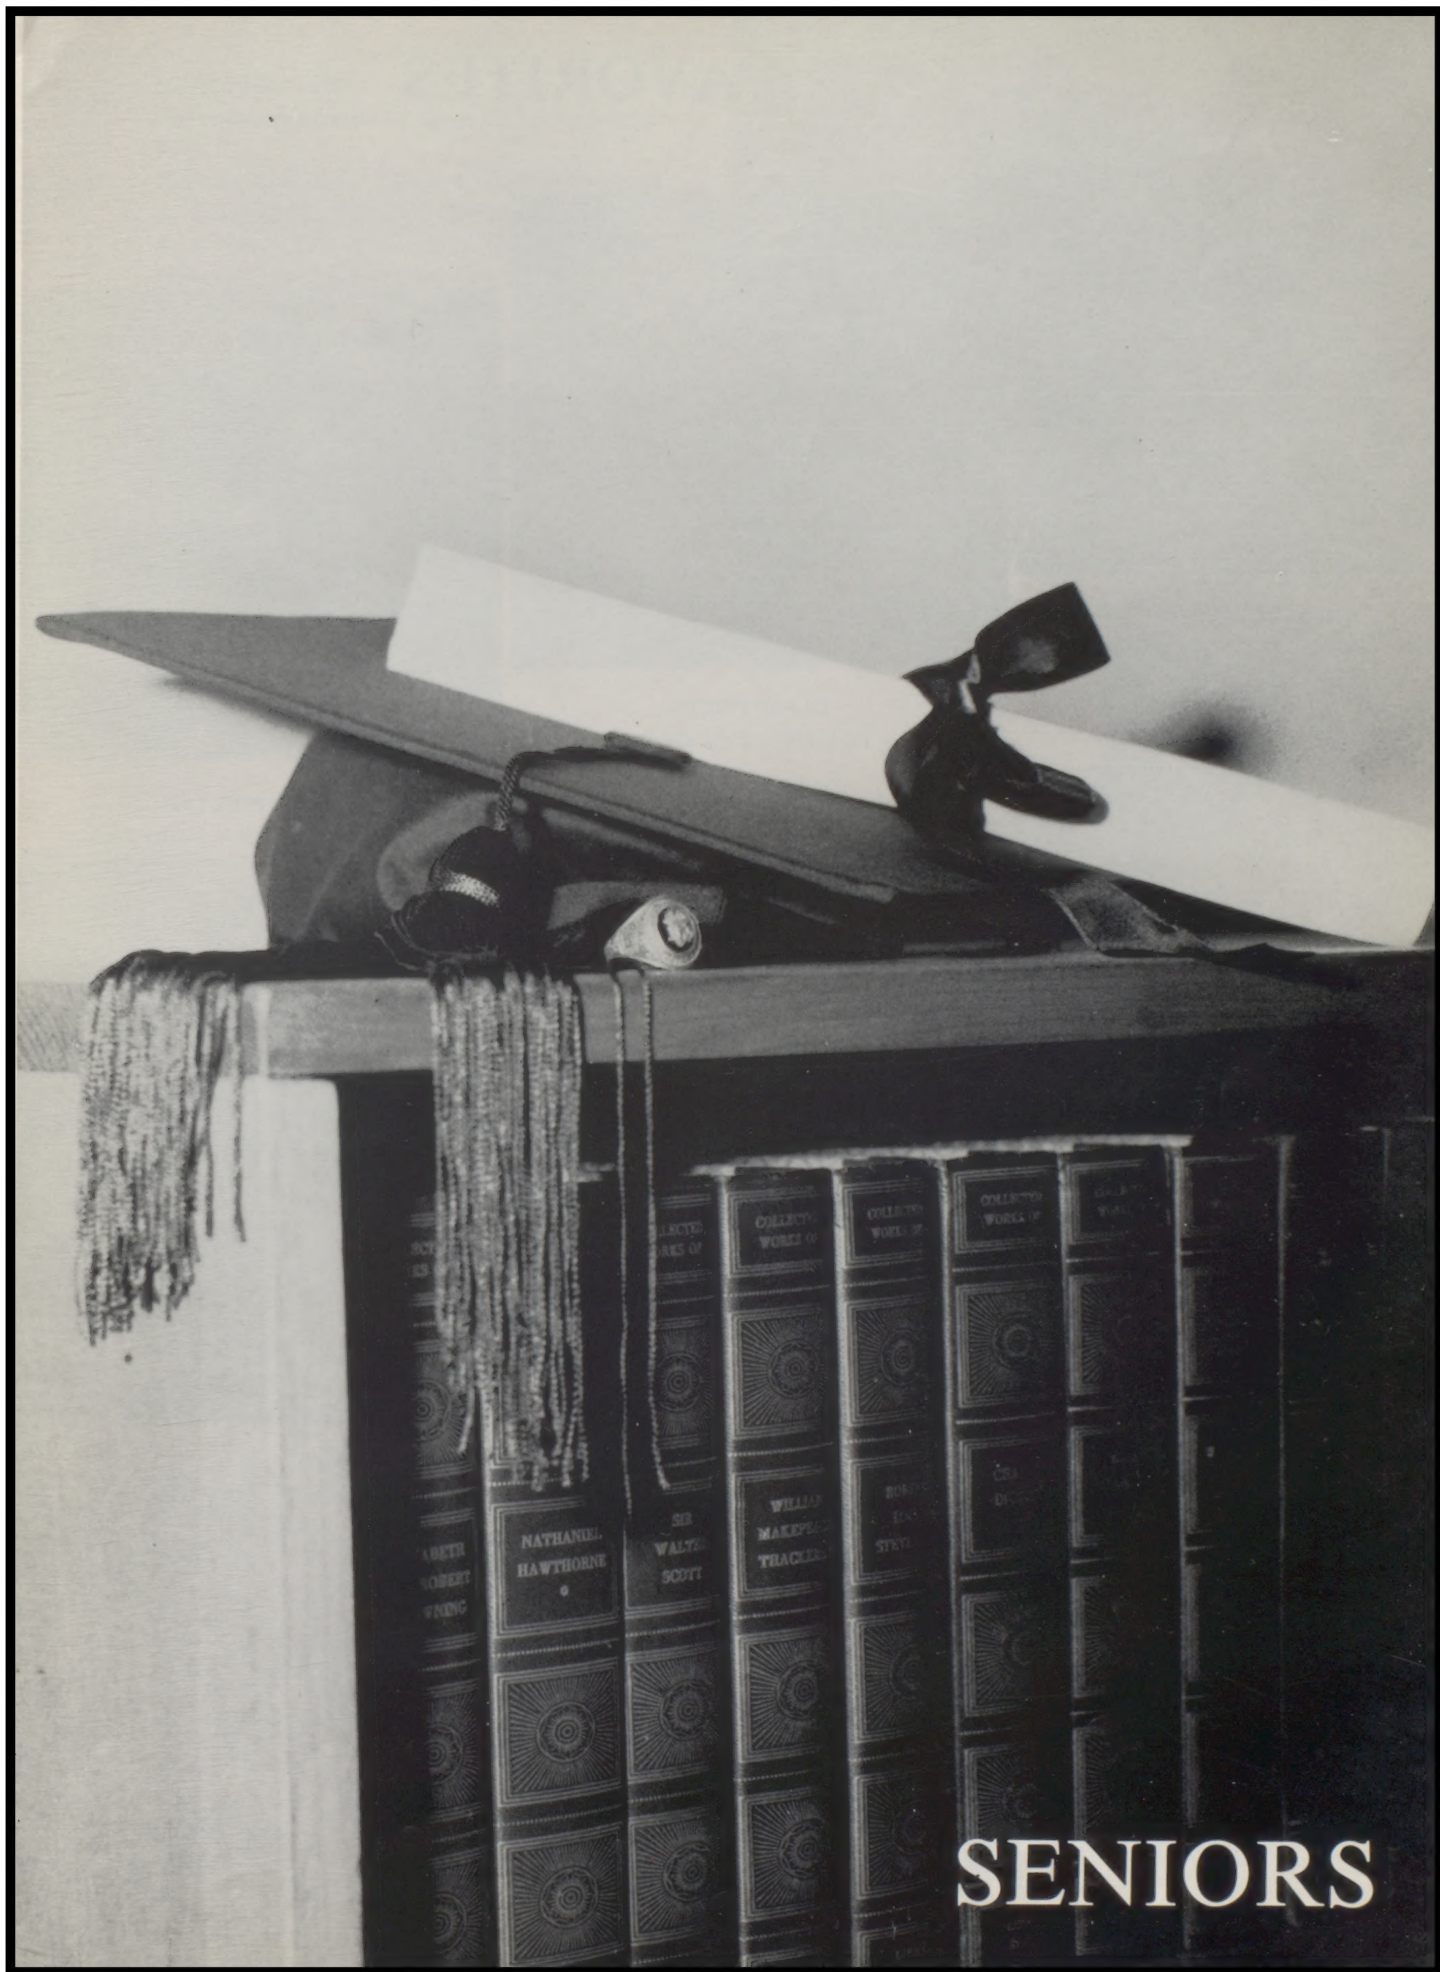

Mrs. Donna Vermillion and Mr. George Richmond

Keeping the Clinton High School at its peak of performance is Mr. George Richmond. Each day he aids students and teachers in attaining the goals of higher education.

Aiding to the smooth-running efficiency of Mr. Richmond's office, is his secretary, Mrs. Donna Vermillion. Besides serving Mr. Richmond, she performs various odd jobs for teachers and students alike.

CANDID PAGE

CHILI SUPPER

On November 17, 1964, the Senior Class held its annual Chili Supper. The boys were in charge of making the chili due to the fact that the senior girls sold more magazines. After everyone had finished eating, different groups provided entertainment.

This year's high salesman was Dick Burns.

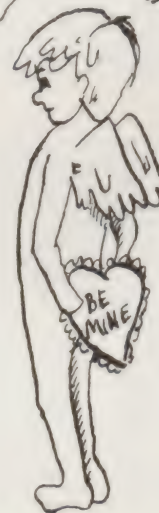

SWEETHEART

Miss Ruth Staton was crowned Sweetheart, February 13, at the annual Sweetheart Dance. Those chosen from each class to attend her were: Kathy DeLancy, Freshman; Phyllis Covey, Sophomore, Carol Reid, Junior; and Pat Reeves, Senior.

Amid the decorations based upon the theme for this year's dance, "Misty Moonlight," the couples danced to the music of the "Run-aways."

The Clinton High Maroon football team finished up with a 3-5-1 record for the season, but failed to win a Corn Belt Conference contest. Their record in the league was 0-4-1.

They opened the season with a 33-18 romp over the Lakeview Spartans, but dropped their first away game at Lincoln 14-0. Normal tripped the Maroons 19-7 in conference and then University High spoiled homecoming with a 20-0 win. Clinton got back on the winning trial by blanking Springfield Feitshans 16-0, but then lost two more to Washington (24-0) and Trinity (14-13). The Maroons tied the Pontiac Indians in loop play and ended the season with a 12-0 skunk of St. Theresa.

BASKETBALL

The Clinton Maroon basketball team had one of its most successful seasons in recent years in 1964-1965.

They started out the season with a non-conference victory over Warrensburg-Latham 50-48. They got their first Corn Belt Conference triumph the next game with a 65-56 win over Trinity. They extended their victory string to three by tripping Pontiac in another league game 68-62. St. Theresa was the Maroons fourth victim in a row as Clinton clipped them 68-60. Washington snapped the Maroons streak by edging them 55-47. Not to be downed, the Maroons bounced back with a 48-46 victory over Mr. Zion. They entered the Octavia Holiday Tournament and quickly advanced to the Championship bracket by downing LeRoy 69-47, but then suffered losses to Octavia (66-53) and Bellflower (67-52). Griffin then defeated the Maroons 71-60 and U. High followed with a conference win 59-40. Normal edged the Maroons 69-67 in loop play. Clinton then went to the Shelbyville Tournament where they brought home the Consolation Bracket trophy by downing Nokomis and Morrisonville after suffering a defeat from Pana. Trinity and U. High then defeated the Maroons in conference tilts. Lincoln handed Clinton another loss then, and Washington edged the Maroons 68-66. The Maroons got back on the winning trail by upsetting the MacArthur Generals 79-77, but lost to Lanphier 84-69. Normal then beat Clinton 68-58. Our next victory came over Lakeview 70-65 in a non-conference tilt.

CROSS-COUNTRY

When Coach Austin came to Clinton this year, he had never coached a losing cross-country team, and due to his 1964 squad, he still hasn't.

The Harriers had a season of nine meets, not including the conference and district meets. Of these nine meets, five were duals, and Clinton was victorious of each. Of the meets consisting of three triangulars and one quadrangular, Clinton took one first and a number of seconds. At the first Corn Belt Conference Cross-Country Meet ever held, Clinton scampered to a second place finish. The Saturday following the conference meet, seven of the Harriers went to the Urbana District where they ran Clinton to eighth position of the fifteen teams participating. The seven members to attend the meet were the six senior lettermen and Bob Turney, sophomore letterman.

Seven members, Ken Armstrong, Charlie Davenport,* Ronnie Mills,* Ron Monts,* Milton Moomaw,* Lynn Myers,* and Alan Punches,* were the senior squad members. At the last of the season, during an intersquad meet, Alan Punches bettered the school record, 9 minutes 31 seconds, with a 9 minute 25.3 seconds timing.
